Any change in the compulsory health insurance which is included in the above fees (currently equivalent to 10% of the TRNC. minimum wage rate) will be directly reflected to the fees.

All international students at Undergraduate and Masters Programs are granted 50% scholarship (of tuition fee) in all faculties except Faculty of Pharmacy and Medicine. In addition to the 50% scholarship, 100% scholarship opportunities are available for outstanding students.

*Generally masters programs consist of 7 courses and thesis, and 10 courses for non-thesis programs (some programs such as the MBA has 14 courses in the non-thesis option). Tuition fee for each master's program course is 762 USD and thesis registration fee is 1142 USD. Additionally, there is an activity fee and health insurance that amounts to 140 USD for each semester.

*There is no scholarship in the Faculty of Medicine; Faculty of Pharmacy may offer 25% to 50% merit based scholarships; PhD programs offer one 100% or two 50% scholarships to new international students.

*There is a wide variety of accommodation options ranging from 2000 USD to 4000 USD in double occupancy rooms per year. Our university cafeteria offers a 3 meals per day meal plan. Two semester meal plan is currently 1900 USD.
